Sum Of Parts

25 November 2000 — 13 January 2001

EXHIBITION GUIDE

The Fruitmarket Gallery bookshop has long provided space for artists to display and sell their work, most notably in the recent series of Bookspace Projects, and through invitational exhibitions. Sum of Parts is the second such exhibition and it features diverse works - T Shirts, bookworks, furnishings, prints, videos and audio-works. Artists' multiples and editions are an established means of making quirky, humorous, provocative and colloquial statements, and this exhibition is no exception. Unusual formats, aphorisms and visual puns are the norm.
Sum of Parts provides a unique opportunity to view a highly inventive selection of works from both established and emerging artists. Works are for sale, giving you the chance to purchase affordable artworks for yourself, or as a gift.

Please contact the front desk for all sale and information enquires.
